

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

The airwaves are a public trust. Please don't let them fall into more and more concentrated hands. Public means that many should have access to transmission, not just those with the most money and the best lawyers and lobbyist. Democracy is only as strong as the smallest and weakest voice. If that voice is drowned out, our democracy crumbles. The FCC's mission is to guard and regulate this public, common resource. Don't give it away to the highest bidder. Guard it and keep it safe for us all.
